

Seoul, Korea

The Gateway Korea Foundation was founded in 2013 in St. Louis, Missouri.

WHAT DOES GKF DO?

Appreciate

the beauty of Korean Arts and Culture.

Build

the culturally diverse Heartland Community.

Collaborate

with the Heartland Community to celebrate Korean Arts and Culture.

DANO

Dano is a traditional Korean holiday marking the end of the spring sowing season. It is traditionally celebrated with the song, dance and games in Korea. GKF celebrates Dano with a lecture given by expert in Korean Arts and Culture at the Saint Louis Art Museum in partnership with the Museum. On the following day GKF presents a panel discussion on Korean art in cross cultural context followed by a fundraising dinner.

CHUSEOK

Chuseok is a major holiday in Korea celebrating good harvest. Traditionally, Korean families visit their ancestral hometowns and enjoy song, dance and games. It is also a time to have a feast. GKF celebrates Chuseok with many cultural activities such as games, martial arts and crafts as well as demonstrating the Korean Alphabet and calligraphy provided by local community members as well as by invited, well known performers from the US or South Korea. GKF also shares an array of Korean Food.

PASSPORT TO KOREA

This program is a part of the Saint Louis Art Museum Family Sunday program. GKF provides Korean Cultural activities such as folk songs, traditional dances, story telling, crafts, games as well as a demonstration of the Korean Alphabet in a interactive manner.

GKF WEBINAR

GKF webinar will cover a variety of topics related to Korean Culture, Society, History and Art featuring many experts in the field from the US, S.Korea and around the world. It is presented monthly in partnership with the University of Missouri-Columbia.
